Prayer Requests:

Summer Ministries

- Souls would be reached at the CEF attraction in the old one room school house at the Pottsville fair June 18-19 and the story booth at the Rooster Crow fair June 25; that children would be drawn to these attractions and parents would allow their children to listen, for the Holy Spirit to empower the presentations of the Gospel, convict of sin and reveal the grace of God to the listeners
- Camp crafts preparation meeting June 13
- Fair training meeting June 15 would better prepare volunteers for service
- CYIA training school June 18-24 with more than the usual number of students expected; that the students would reach many children in Salem with the Gospel; safety in travel to the clubs and while sharing the Gospel in parks; good health of the students and staff; good security and wisdom as Jim oversees that aspect of the school; that the staff would effectively teach the students how to evangelize and train children in the Word
- Day camp staff still needed July 11-15: Few more team leaders and helpers, a camp crafts table leader, and three more evangelists or missionaries for the afternoon assembly
- Five Day Clubs would be scheduled this summer that would reach many children; CYIAers would be available to teach them when scheduled, prepare and teach well

Good News & JYC Clubs

- The reorganization of the Rogue River schools would not hinder the children from attending Good News Clubs in the fall, especially those in middle school at the High School campus
- Club members would follow Christ this summer, learn from Him at camps, VBSs, wonderzone.com, Tel-A-Story and through the Mail Box Club
- God would grant good relations with especially new school staff this fall
- The middle school clubs would attract more interest of parents and students next fall
